

Balthazar Dark - WRESTLING

WITH

SADDOS

'Wrestling With Saddos' 2021 Press Pack
Performed & Written by: Andrew Marsh
Directed by: Thom Bee

The Show

Balthazar Dark is the greatest wrestler you've never heard of. Too dangerous to perform on the scene in this country he whiles away his time exposing the seedy underbelly of pro wrestling to UK comedy audiences. Visiting whichever city he's in to schmooze his way onto an indie bill.

Full Show Bio

Expanding on his story told in the 2018 (No) Money in the Bank Show, Balthazr aims to comprehensively explain his entire history in wrestling.

An inspiring story of a wanabee, to the king of the ring, to a guy stuck in the UK peddling his story as comedy in the hope he can get back in the squared circle again one day.

Unpredictable, wild, and with enough wrestling stories to last ten more hours, no wrestling fan can afford to miss 'Wrestling with Saddos'.

Balthazar Dark

Balthazar Dark was born in the back rooms of pubs, clubs & bingo halls, insisting that people listened, demanding it when they didn't & carrying on regardless either way.

'Wrestling with Saddos' marks a departure for Balthazar who, after a successful 2018 Edinburgh Fringe run & self financed UK tour as part of the (No) Money in the Bank double act with fellow rabble-rouser Thom Bee, will perform his debut solo hour.

Be there if you can but just know he'll be there screaming about his career in Wrestling to anyone that will listen no matter who hears it
